

Like Beer? Love to Travel?

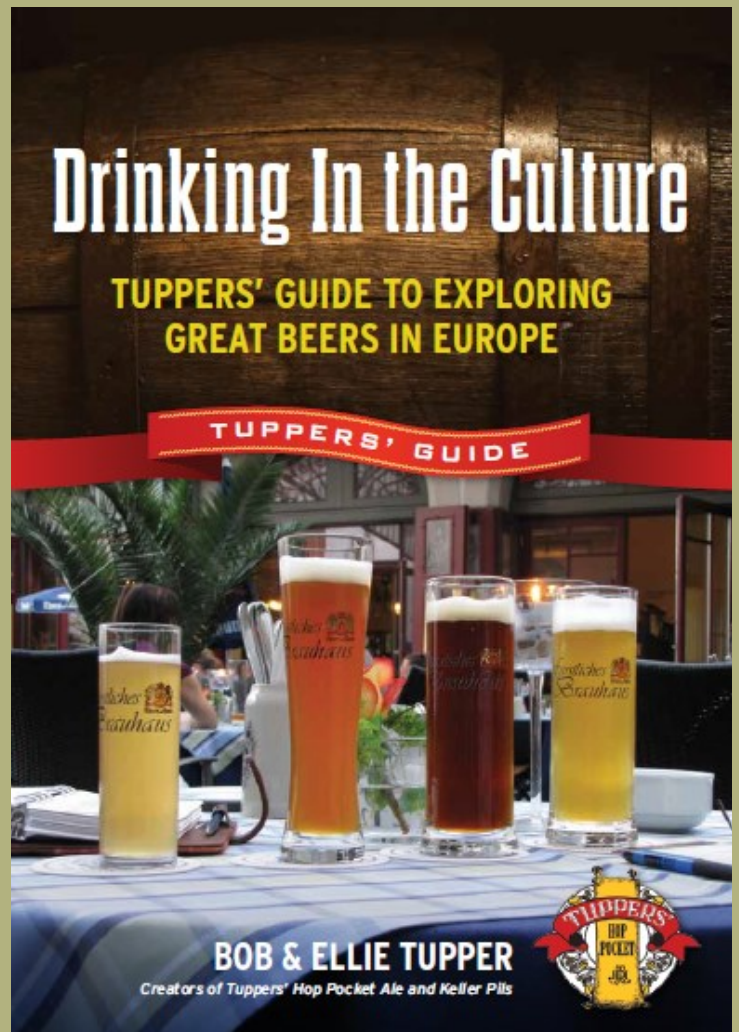

This is Europe for Beer Lovers

Drinking In the Culture is the first ever guide to finding, not just good beer, but good beer places, to explore the local brewing cultures of Europe.

Each chapter begins with an overview of the history and culture of the city—including its beers—with ideas for where to stay or eat and what to see, plus nearby excursions for further discovery. But the heart of each chapter is the “sixpack” (or more) of the very best pubs, bars, and beer gardens in town to sample the local brews.

Drinking In the Culture is a unique combination of travelogue and beer guide. It will help travelers locate and enjoy the rich variety of distinctive beer-drinking experiences Europe has to offer.

See the reverse side for a list of these great places to explore beer!

Historical Time Line

Bob and Ellie Tupper, “DC’s original beer geeks” (Washington CityPaper), designed the GABF gold medal-winning beers Tupperts’ Hop Pocket Ale and Tupperts’ Keller Pils. They have hosted the Brickskeller Tasting series in Washington, DC, since 1984. Their 35-year quest to find new beers has taken them from Scotland to Austria to Scandinavia to Italy and has built their database of tasting notes to over 26,000 beers.

In addition to lecturing on beer, Bob has taught history for 45 years and Ellie is a writer and editor for an international scientific society.
